FEEHAN'S HEALTH RESTORED.

Archbishop the Central Figure in Great Demonstration.

Chicago, May 38.—Archbishop Feehan of the Roman Catholic Church was the central figure in an unusual demonstration on the West Side to-day. Ill-health had compelled him for a time to refrain from active episcopal work, but his health is now completely restored, and his resumption of all the duties of his office was celebrated to-day by the people of his discess.

A procession of 8,000, with banners and music, escorted the Archbishop to the West side Jesuit Church, where he officiated in the confirmation of 600 children.

En route to the church the procession halted at the various Catholic educational institutions. At the school for deaf and dumb children Archbishop Feehan's carriage was filled with flowers.

Sergeant Buttwick of Ohio Capital Loses Money and Watch.

William H. Buttwick, a Columbus, O., Sergeant of Police, spent Saturday night in the holdover at the Four Couria. Policeman Doyle found Buttwick at the Policeman Doyle found Buttwick at the corner of Broadway and Chestnut streets early yesterday morning suffering from a wound under the right eye. At first be said he was held up by four young men near Union Station and robbed of 1270 and his gold watch. Doyle accompanied him to the City Dispensary, where Doctor Johnson dressed the wound. As he told several conflicting stories he was locked up for the night. When he was relieved yesterday morning Buttwick still maintained that he had been robbed.
